IMAGES OF API'S PROGRAMS

Orientation meeting for Fith/Mith micro-credit Association in Guediawaye. The group's president demonstrates how to use API's passbook in savings program.

Ndeye Fall, a nurse, monitors an API's group member's blood sugar. Senegal has a very high rate of Diabetes.

API's Executive Director, Sebastine Ujereh, delivers working capital to Ligueye Jarinou micro-credit group for their collective poultry project.

Meeting of API's Boolo Liquey Women's Association. 'Boolo Liquey' (local wolof language) means "women united by hard work to improve their lives". Observe the bowl...It is used to collect API-induced group savings in API's Savings Program.
